

“Knowledge for Success”

Workshop Series for Employers, Managers & Supervisors

WorkBC Employment Services

WorkBC Wage Subsidy - You're Hiring! You're Eligible! What's Next?

Tuesday, October 17 3-4pm (Virtual)

The WorkBC wage subsidy program has funded over 90 local employers and hundreds of newly hired workers to offset on-the-job training costs. Find out about eligibility (most likely you are eligible) and the support process during this informative session.

The wage subsidy program is easy to apply for and makes good business sense. What have you got to lose?

Lorrie Mohl
Employer Services Coordinator
WorkBC Centre Parksville

This program is funded by the Government of Canada and the Province of British Columbia.

REGISTER: 250.248.3205 or info@careercentre.org

" I am so confident attendees will learn at least one new tidbit of knowledge at these sessions, that I'm offering to buy you lunch if you don't!! - Lorrie Mohl

BC Employment Standards - Common "Do's" and "Don'ts" for Employers

Thursday, October 19 3-4pm (Virtual)

This hour could save you money and time! Discover common mistakes employers make and best practices to avoid expensive lessons.

An insightful discussion on the common errors employers tend to make and how to avoid them.

Lauren Thompson
Employment Standards Officer/Investigator,
Early Intervention - Ministry of Labour

Got a question but are too afraid to ask? Send it anonymously to lmohl@careercentre.org in advance and the panel will address it during the session.

Leah Reinheimer
Employment Standards Investigator/
Industrial Relations Officer - Ministry of Labour

Employment
Standards Branch

Workplace Safety and Theft Reduction with Oceanside RCMP

Wednesday, November 29 6-7pm
In person at the Career Centre (upstairs in #328)

Join us for an in person presentation with representatives from the local RCMP. Learn ways to reduce opportunity for theft and tips to create a safer workplace for you and your staff. Bring your questions!

Our next Employer Workshop Session will be in January, 2024!

Topic and date TBD

As an Employer, Supervisor or Manager, what topics would you find valuable?

Let us know!